Dear Mr. Morisy:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests dated February 6, 2012, for the closing memos and final reports for Defense Criminal Investigative Service (DCIS) cases 200800113P, 200401538O, and 201000675D. We received your requests on September 4, 2012, and assigned them FOIA case numbers 12-00319-F, 12-00320-F, and 12-00321-F, respectively.

Please note that your requests were faxed to a number that belongs to a different component of the Department of Defense, Office of the Inspector General. This is the reason our office did not receive your requests for several months. In the future, please submit any FOIA requests through our online submission form, to our new fax number, or to our new address. Our new contact information is listed below:

Department of Defense, Office of Inspector General

Concerning your request for DCIS case 200800113P, the records you are seeking are currently part of an open investigation. Therefore, until the investigation closes, I am denying the records under 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5), which pertains to certain inter- and intra-agency communications protected by the deliberative process privilege, 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6), which pertains to information, the release of which, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A), which applies to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes during an open investigation, the release of which could reasonably be expected to interfere with law enforcement proceedings; 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(C), which pertains to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of individuals; and 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(E), which pertains to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which would disclose certain law enforcement techniques or procedures.

You may request the documents you seek again once the investigation is closed. You will, however, be required to submit a new FOIA request to this Office. If you need assistance determining the status of the investigation, please contact the FOIA Requester Service Center at 703-604-9775 or 1-866-993-7005.

Concerning your requests for DCIS cases 200401538O and 201000675D, we are processing your requests and will provide you with responses as soon as practicable. Please note that our current administrative workload is 280 open requests.

If you are not satisfied with this action, you may submit an administrative appeal to the Department of Defense, Office of the Inspector General, Office of Communications and Congressional Liaison, ATTN: Mr. John R. Crane, Suite 15F25, 4800 Mark Center Drive, Alexandria, VA 22350-1500. Your appeal should be postmarked within 60 days of the date of this letter, should cite to case number 12-00319-F, and should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

Sincerely,

Jeanne Miller
Chief, Freedom of Information and Privacy Office
